Airbus A380

Astonishing as it may seem, it is the first Airbus to join the prestigious collection of the Museum of Air and Space (LFBG.) It will also be, from 2018, the largest v flying machine that visitors can discover from the inside. The A380 MSN4 arrived in flight at Le Bourget where it finally settled on February 14, 2017 at 5pm. It took four years of negotiations to get there...marc

President's Report- Arnie Quast

Dear EAA 932
Chapter members,

It is hard to believe that the first two months of the year are behind us, and 2017 is in full swing with lots going on at our Chapter! I am very excited to serve as the new President of EAA 932. We have a great group of people in our chapter, and one of the best airport communities in the country! It is hard to beat what we have going on around Galt Airport. Despite my longstanding membership in EAA 932, my learning curve has been steep as I step into the role of president. During my first month in service, I have been working to become familiar with our Board of Directors, committees and membership. I am finding that a lot goes on behind the scenes to keep our group organized, run events, and provide community outreach to our local world of aviation. This comes through strong volunteerism of all of our members. I highly encourage everybody to get involved in some part of our chapter throughout the year no matter how big or small the involvement may be. Every little bit counts in keeping us together, and I really look forward to getting to know everyone in our chapter.

On February 4, I had the opportunity to attend a Chicago Area EAA Chapter Leader Conference at Schaumburg Airport. Our Vice President, Patrick Hoffmann, along with our Secretary, Paul Sedlacek attended this meeting with me. Our own Patrick Hoffmann did a great job facilitating this very productive meeting. EAA Chapter leaders from around Northern Illinois and Southern Wisconsin were in attendance. Also in attendance were a few leaders from EAA Headquarters in Oshkosh. During the meeting, we became acquainted with each other, and shared ideas, trials and tribulations of our various chapters. We also shared our event schedules so that we would not be overlapping various events such as Pancake Breakfasts and Young Eagles Rallies. There was much to share with each other, and I was truly amazed at all of the neat people involved in the EAA chapters in our area. Take the time to attend not only our own, but some of the other events put on by area chapters. We are all welcome to share the spirit of EAA membership through our area chapters. To further learn and expand my knowledge of necessary Chapter Leadership Skills, I will be attending an EAA Chapter Leader Training Conference at EAA Headquarters in Oshkosh, WI on April 28-30. During this event; EAA Chapter Leaders from around the country come together to interact with EAA Leadership to better understand the organization and gain insight on how to better lead a chapter.

At a Glance Medical Reform Highlights –

Aircraft specification:
Up to six seats, up to 6000 pounds (no limitations on horsepower, number of engines, or gear type).

Flight rules: Day or night.
VFR or IFR

Passengers: Up to five passengers

Aeromedical factors:
Pilots must take a free online course every two years and visit their personal physician every four years

Altitude restriction: Up to 18,000 feet MSL
Airspeed limitation: 250 knots indicated airspeed

Pilot limitation: Cannot operate for compensation or hire

I am looking forward to this excellent learning experience. Finally, as March approaches, we have a few neat events on tap. On March 4, we will host a fundraiser for our Scholarship Fund. This will be in the form of a Murder Mystery Dinner being held in the shop at Galt Airport. There will be professional actors leading the plot and some very good catered food. It should be a fun time to support a great cause. On March 11, instead of our Monthly Chapter Meeting, we will host Dr. Greg

Ostrom for a discussion about the recent BasicMed and Third Class Medical Reform. Dr. Ostrom is a very well known and respected FAA Aviation Medical Examiner (AME) in our area. The event will be sanctioned under the FAA WINGS program, and attendees can earn a WINGS Knowledge Credit for attending the event. We encourage everyone to join us for this important topic of conversation. Have a great month, and hope to see everyone around Galt

Airport!

Murder Mystery Dinner

Join us for a Fundraiser for the EAA Chapter 932 Scholarship Fund. Money raised will go toward two scholarships. One will cover the cost of tuition to send a young adult to the EAA Basic Air Academy Camp. The second, a flight scholarship, will provide financial assistance to an individual for flight training at Galt Airport. More information can be found at www.eaa932.org/scholarships/ Saturday, March 4, 2017 at 6:00pm Tickets are $50 and 100% of proceeds go to the scholarship fund.

Guest Speaker- Paul Wallem

By Jeff Hill

The guest speaker following our February meeting was Mr. Paul Wallem, a 'regular' at neighboring airport Poplar Grove (C77) for the past forty years. He has also been, and still is, very active with the Poplar Grove Vintage Wings & Wheels Museum.

Paul gave an interesting talk and slide show presentation that included the history and progression of the Museum. If you haven't been there in awhile you will be amazed at the additions and improvements made in recent years. Check 'em out at: www.poplargrovewingsandwheels.com/

Paul has written a book, Private Wings...my life in logbooks, memories brought back to life by leafing through his forty years of meticulously well-kept records. They will be enjoyed by both 'new' and 'old' pilots. New pilots will be thinking of wonderful dreams and old pilots will be reminded of wonderful memories. 'Big airplane' pilots may also note some dramatic moments that they also experienced, only the numbers were different. Private Wings is available on line at www.amazon.com.

I could identify with Paul right off; me being a 'farm kid' with a GA pilot background and Paul being another farm kid, former farm implement (IH) dealer, and GA pilot. Paul is also a good friend of C77 legend, Orion Samuelson. He's the guy who surprised Art Galt one midnight in August of 1996 by knocking on his door after having made an emergency landing at our own 10C following an engine failure. He was saved by the fact that Art kept the runway lights on all night - every night - a welcome sight when a runway is what was desperately needed. Art, (another farmer) recognized Orion right away from listening to and watching his WGN Radio and TV's daily Farm Report and asked, "Samuelson, what the hell are you doing at my airport at midnight?" (See the full story and its aftermath in the January and July 2013 issues of Galt Traffic, available on our web site, www.eaa932.org

Flight School News

Meet Jeff Stillwell
Jeff joined the ranks as an instructor at JB Aviation in November of 2016. He grew up in Fox Lake and got his Private Pilot License at Galt Airport in 1990, then went on to continue flight training at American Flyers, Palwaukee. He earned his CFI and taught at American Flyers for a few years before choosing to focus on a different career. He's been back flying regularly for the past few years and renewed his CFI last fall. He said he had always planned to return to instructing in retirement but couldn't wait 'til then. "It's fun to do airplane things and make new airplane friends. I'm glad to be back at 10C!"

Private Pilot Ground School classes are starting soon. Check out the flyer for more details.

ED BROWN'S GROUND

Over 8 weeks, Private Pilot Ground School was designed specifically around Galt Airport, our airplanes, and flight school. It incorporates a structured classroom environment with a unique, hands-on learning experience you can't get from a textbook. You'll spend time along-side our mechanics in our aircraft maintenance shop, see the airport and some of Galt's coolest airplanes, and learn first-hand how to conduct a thorough pre-flight inspection. You'll learn everything you need to know to pass the FAA written exam, and be ready to hit the ground running on your first flight lesson. As a matter of fact, once you pass the class, we'll give you that first lesson for free!

Cost is $550 and includes:

- Ground school presentation written
- Complete study guide
- Introductory flight lesson (student solo)
- Membership in JB Aviation's Flight Club (2500 minutes)
- 6-month membership in FAA Chapter 001
- Certificate of completion

Additional Information:

Additional class materials can be purchased as a kit for $75.

To reserve your spot, please make payment, cash or check, at least one week prior to the start of class.

From the EAA 932 Treasurer

This is just a brief reminder that your membership runs from January 1st to December 31st. Individual Membership is $20 and Family Membership is $30.

There are three ways that you can bring your membership up to date:

1. You can now pay your dues using Chapter 932's direct link to PayPal. It's a safe and secure service that allows us to accept major credit cards with no additional charges to you. PayPal notifies us of your payment the same day you make it. No need to sit down, write a check, address, stamp and mail an envelope!

If you already use PayPal, just click the link and log into your account at the prompt. If you don't yet have an account, simply click the link below and follow the prompts to set one up. It's free, easy, just takes a minute and only needs to be done once. Check it out! Clicking on this link will open your web browser and take you directly to EAA932's PayPal page: PayPal.Me/EAA932Galt

2. You can still always mail your payment to:

EAA Chapter 932 - Treasurer
Galt Airport
